

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BTL announces 1 million tests and counting.

Shipley, United Kingdom, October 2007

BTL Group Ltd today announced that more than 1 million certified exams have now been delivered using BTL's assessment delivery technology. Bob Gomersall (BTL Group Ltd Chairman) said, "This huge number of onscreen assessments validates our belief in the benefits of this approach. We are proud that, through our delivery systems, people have become accountants and teachers, and have gained qualifications in Key Skills and at GCSE level."

BTL is recognised as a dynamic, innovative provider of content for learning and assessment, and in recent years for providing large-scale exam delivery programmes.

Day after day, year after year, BTL have been consistently building and implementing systems that provide exams reliably and satisfy enormous demand.

These one million exams are all invigilated, medium and high-stakes assessments and are facilitating real, positive progress in the lives of learners. BTL are proud to offer a reliable and enduring service; one that means their customers can be fully confident in the use of onscreen assessments.

Further to their historic successes in exam delivery, BTL have never been the sort to rest on their laurels; the release of their new exam delivery system – SecureAssess – is imminent, and destined to ensure the next 1 million tests are as great as the first.
