Skills Assessments using e-Assessment Tools - Free White Paper

Shipley, United Kingdom, December 2009

BTL Group Ltd, with partners AlphaPlus Consultancy Ltd, announce the release of their latest FREE white paper titled 'Speed & Accuracy in Skills Assessment'. This study explores the benefits and techniques of computerised skills assessment. It particularly looks into the enhanced formative assessment opportunities derived from computerised approaches.

BTL and AlphaPlus have many years of experience in working with various organisations to create and deliver skills assessment tools. In particular, in recent years, both organisations have pioneered, within the UK, post compulsory generic skills training such as Key Skills, Skills for Life and Functional Skills.

Topics discussed in the white paper include:

- Learner and tutor expectations of diagnostics and formative assessment
- Speed and accuracy in skills assessment
- Assessing the curriculum effectively
- The benefits of smarter technology
- The challenges of adaptive skills assessments
